Families affected by mercury spill to move into Palm Glades Apartments

By Brenda Bunting

The 11 remaining families affected by the mercury spill are moving this week from a motel into Palm Glades Apartments in Belle Glade, despite some of their objections to the change.

Officials with the Army Corp of Engineers and the Environmental Protection Agency met with the families last Wednesday to discuss their concerns.

"I can't force you to do this," said Dora Ann Johnson, federal on-scene coordinator for EPA, when several said they object to the move because of what they say is a high crime rate at the apartment complex.

The EPA, through the Superfund program, has been paying for the families to stay at a local motel at a cost of almost $48,000 a month. Their homes were found to be contaminated after four children found bottles of mercury in an abandoned van and shared the liquid among friends, spreading the contamination.

The apartments will cost EPA approximately $10,000 a month with EPA paying for rent, utilities and groceries for the families.

"Our agency is required to supply safe, adequate and appropriate housing. It also has to be cost-effective. The agency can't justify spending $48,000 a month for a motel when it will cost $10,000 a month for Palm Glades," said Ms. Johnson.

Howard Lamb, one of the men whose family is displaced, said he is out at Palm Glades almost every day since the company he works for, Glades Mercantile, delivers a lot of merchandise in that area.

He said children are out late a night making a lot of noise and that the police have to come to the apartment complex very often for problems.

"What you're saying to us is we don't have a choice. We have to move into Palm Glades," he said, after Ms. Johnson said the only alternative the families have is to comply or get out of the program.

Robert Walker, who is with the management team at Palm Glades Apartments, said the complex has been under new management for about two weeks and there have been many improvements.

"We've had some problems. Who hasn't? But in a 60 mile radius, there's not a better place to live," he said.

Some of the families also found out last week that they could be out of their homes for up to a year and a half. Mercury levels in some of the homes have risen.

EPA says the cause could be because the homes have been shut up in the heat. They also said some of the mercury could have been absorbed into the baseboards and cement in the floors of the homes, making it harder to remove.

At least one of the families found out last week that recent tests show mercury levels in their 12-year-old son have increased.

Museum grand opening is Nov. 12

After a year of activity required to relocate and renovate a historic building, the Zora Neale Hurston Roof Garden Museum will host a grand opening ribbon cutting celebration on Saturday, Nov. 12, at its new location inside Glades Pioneer Park.

The public is invited to share this event, which will begin at 11 a.m. and last through 5 p.m. and will feature African drummers, a ribbon cutting ceremony, continuous cultural performances by a variety of artists, souvenirs and free food for all.

For additional information on the grand opening event, or to contribute to the Hurston Museum's Building Fund, call 996-2161.

Renovations on the building will continue over the next two years, according to museum chief executive officer Cartheda Korchellah.

Prizes galore...will be given away at the American Red Cross/Saks Fifth Avenue Fashion Show and Luncheon Saturday. Tickets are still available by calling the local Red Cross office. Burning candles blamed in two separate house fires

By Brenda Bunting

Two families are without a place to live today because they left burning candles in their bedrooms, according to fire department officials.

Annie Freeman of 138 N.E. First Street, Apartment 1, Belle Glade, and eight other family members, were planning to move to another location and their electricity was shut off. Belle Glade Firefighters were called to the apartment at 9:41 p.m., Oct. 27, when a burning candle ignited something in the bedroom.

No one was at home at the time.

Fire Chief Tony Taliano said damage from the fire is estimated at about $8,000.

Two days later, firefighters received a call at 8:30 a.m., to go to 548 S.W. 10th Street, the home of James Sims.

They put out the fire, which was estimated to have caused approximately $10,000 in damage.

The West County office of the American Red Cross has stepped in to provide temporary housing, food and clothing for both families.

Man pinned in truck hanging off bridge for over four hours

By Brenda Bunting

A Hialeah man spent a harrowing four hours Oct. 26, pinned in a cane truck with a broken leg while the truck hung off a bridge by one wheel.

According to a report by Patrolman Carlos Nieves with the Palm Beach County Sheriff's Department, Rafael V. Leyva, of Hialeah, was traveling north on a cane field road just south of South Bay when he crossed Knight's Farm Bridge.

Leyva, who is an independent contractor for Tailman Sugar Corp., overturned the truck, which was loaded with sugar cane.

Moss Towing arrived at the scene, along with Everglades Regional Medical Center's Ambulance Service and officials from the Palm Beach

County Sheriff's Department.

Donald Moss, owner of Moss Towing, said his workers, Jim Older, Donny Moss, Roy Sloan and Marty Stahl, secured the truck, but were unable to lift it out.

At about 1:45 a.m., he requested that U.S. Sugar send a crane to help. Leyva was extricated about 4 a.m. and taken by ambulance to Glades General Hospital.

Mr. Moss said he was appreciative that U.S. Sugar donated their time and the crane.

He credited Vice President Larry Worth, who is in charge of the crane operators, Jack Langdale, and assistant Larry Swindle, as well as Ray Holland.

"Without their help, this man might not be alive," said Mr. Moss.

PBSO make arrest in death of elderly man

Tammy Jackson

Staff Reporter

Palm Beach County Sheriff's Department officials have made an arrest in the death of a 77-year-old Pahokee man.

Reported in the Oct. 13, 1994 edition of The Sun, Herman Wilson was found dead in his home Oct. 9, after Wilson's neighbors contacted the sheriff's department.

According to reports, the neighbors were concerned about his welfare. They also said they had not seen Mr. Wilson in several days.

When deputies arrived at the man's home, they found his body lying on the living room floor.

Following a lengthy investigation, officials arrested Alvin Walker, 44, on Oct. 28, and charged him with one count of second degree murder and one count of robbery.

He was booked into the Palm Beach County jail where he is being held with no bond.

Detective Sgt. John Russ said "physical evidence and a thorough investigation" led to the arrest of Walker.

According to PBSO reports, Walker has an extensive criminal arrest history.

Computer hackers arrested

By Mike Lyons

I always thought a hacker was someone who didn't play golf very well. In the 1990's however, a hacker is something else entirely.

A hacker these days is someone who uses a computer to gain access to highly sensitive computer systems, systems they shouldn't be messing around with. It is amazing what you can do with a computer, a modem and a lot of patience.

Remember the movie "War Games"? It's the story of a teenager in search of the ultimate video game who hacks his way into the North American Air Defense Command computers and almost starts World War III.

Just the other day officials at Florida Atlantic University shut down a student-run computer network because student hackers were trying to break into records of universities around the world. Each year universities, companies and the government spend boku bucks to protect their computer systems from hackers. Still, even these expensive security systems don't always work.

In September of last year, hackers broke into the National Meteorological Center at Camp Springs, Md. The NMC is home to the National Weather Service's most sophisticated computers. These computers provide the daily weather forecasts for the nation as well as storing just about every bit of weather information there is.

"Fortunately, they didn't damage anything or change anything," said John Ward of the NMC. If they had, our weather forecasting system would have been a mess, putting lives and property at risk.

To protect the data base, Mr. Ward met with the FBI's National Computer Crime Squad. I wasn't even aware the FBI had such a group but apparently computer crime is becoming more common.

"The FBI recommended that we make it look as if we were not aware the hackers had gained access to our system," Mr. Ward said. "We didn't want to scare them off, we wanted to catch them." Mr. Ward did install a special monitoring system that kept track of who was using the system.

The trap was set. Mr. Ward and the FBI waited. Nothing happened in October or November. Then, on a Sunday in December, the hackers returned. "Within two minutes, the FBI traced the connection to some house in Denmark," Mr. Ward said. "It was amazing how efficiently the trap worked."

Danish officials arrested four young men, ages 17 to 20. The lead hacker of the group, the 17 year old, was charged with disrupting the day-to-day operation of a data handling system.

It turned out these guys were apparently breaking into systems all around the world. The FBI said they hacked into 32 computer systems in the United States and another 36 in Denmark.

Mr. Ward was working at the NMC is exciting especially this time of year when big winter storms are starting to form. But, he'll never forget his crime-fighting days. "I was so excited when I heard the computer alarm telling me the hackers were back," Mr. Ward said. "Catching those guys made all the late nights and long weekends worth it."

Mr. Ward will continue to keep his guard up protecting the weather data base. Even though he caught the hackers this time and the security systems are improved, there's always another hacker trying to gain access.

Mike Lyons is the weatherman for WPBF, Channel 25.

Mrs. Rutledge participated in the festivities at the Gladeview Elementary Halloween Carnival. Mrs. Rutledge, a GVE teacher, had the Halloween spirit as well as the students who enjoyed a day that was highlighted with a Spooktacular Haunted House.

Senior at GDS awarded National Youth Leadership Certificate of Merit

Shelley Davis

Shelley Davis, a senior at Glades Day School, was awarded the National Youth Leadership Certificate of Merit at the National Young Leaders Conference in Washington, D.C. last month. Miss Davis was invited to represent Florida at the conference, held Oct. 10-14. She joined students from across the United States who were nominated based on their scholastic merit and leadership abilities.

"It was a great experience," said Miss Davis, the daughter of Frank and Helen Davis of Belle Glade. "I loved seeing all the sights in Washington, D.C., as well as taking part in a mock Congress, where we tried to pass a bill. That part was really interesting."

Besides touring Capitol Hill, she also visited the White House, Smithsonian Institution, Arlington Cemetery and the National Monuments. She also met staff members in U.S. Rep. (Fl.) Tom Lewis and Senator Connie Mack's offices.

"We were on the go the whole time," said Miss Davis. "I was glad to get home so I could get some rest."

Although she enjoyed the experience in the nation's capital, Miss Davis has no plans to be a politician.

"I plan to go to a community college and then transfer to a four-year university and major in business," she explained.

A Belle Glade man died when his car plunged into the Hillsboro Canal at West Canal Street, South and N.W. 6th Street, Oct. 30.

Evangeline Ulmanzor, 24, of 340 West Canal Street South, Belle Glade, drowned when his car went into the canal about 4 p.m.

Police and fire rescue responded to an emergency 911 call and scuba divers from the Belle Glade Fire Rescue made several attempts to rescue Ulmanzor. Because of the damage to the car, he was pinned in the front seat and the divers were unable to get him out. He died at the scene.

The police investigation revealed that Ulmanzor was traveling at a high rate of speed and apparently lost control of the car after passing Northwest 5th Street. Alcohol is suspected as a contributing factor in the accident. The accident is being investigated by Patrolman Reuben Prince and Detective Amy All. The Palm Beach County Medical Examiner's Office is also assisting in the investigation.

A cry for help

Will someone help us to get that crossing fixed? Please help us. Please.

He says Democrats are better

I want to say that the American voters should wise up. The only platform that the Republicans can present to the American people is more taxes. President Reagan won on that basis, Bush ran on that basis, now Gov. Martinez promises no new taxes or no more taxes and he was the one who taxed the state more than any other governor.

Now, Jeb Bush is running and promises no taxes.

It is time we wised up because it is all we can do. Vote for these people and let me say this right off the bat, I'm fed up with a lot of these wishy-washy, syrupy democrats, who because of political ludicrously, voted for the people who they know are still not going to do this country any good.

The next thing I want to say is this: I would not like to see the day when Jeb Bush becomes the governor for the State of Florida.

I'm wondering if anyone could tell me when the Republicans are able to manage the budget than the Democrats? I would just like for someone to tell me that.

It's just proven that the Democrats manage the budget of this country better than any Republican in the eastern United States.

Hours too short

I live in Belle Glade. A few weeks ago, maybe even a month ago, you had an article where someone spoke out wanting to know why the animal control people do not pick up the animals like they should. Animal control's response was that they didn't have enough funding and this, that and the other.

Well, my dog, who is on a chain in the front yard, keeps getting harassed by these stray dogs in the neighborhood. It is to the point where he gets his chain wrapped all around the tree and he can't move and the dogs are just attacking him.

Well, I just now called the animal control, it's about 8:30 a.m., to get somebody to take care of it.

Probably the real reason they don't pick up any animals is because they only work from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Of course they're not going to pick up enough animals with hours like that. I just thought people would like to know.

It doesn't sound to me like a funding problem. It sounds to me like they're not spending a full day doing their job.

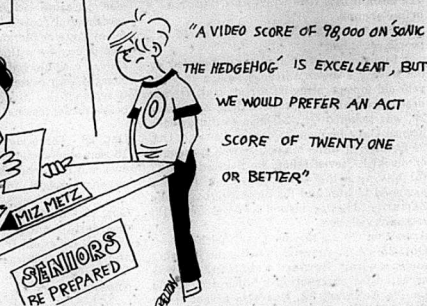

Thanks...but

This is the same person who has been calling about the ditch out on Airport Road. I want to thank whoever got behind the officials to get this ditch clean.

They got most of the trash out of it. I was a little disappointed that they started out the first block and they dug it and then they just came up and got the trash. Which wouldn't help. They didn't dig the ditch out. I would like to have seen the ditch dug out so the water would stay there and not dry up in spots.

United Methodist Church in Belle Glade

As election day approaches, we are bombarded with conflicting information, on both candidates and issues. What is the truth?

It is often difficult to tell. I would like to share some thoughts with you on one single issue, which will have significant impact on our state, as well as many individuals within it.

The proposed constitutional amendment, "Limited Casinos", has been the focus of some very effective, but misleading television and radio advertising, as well as articles and editorials in newspapers and other periodicals.

Over 10 million dollars has been committed to get this amendment passed, most of it clearly coming from casino gambling interests, and much of it from out-of-state.

The thrust of this misleading advertising is that we need to limit the number of casinos in Florida, thus controlling their impact. This is most peculiar, since our present Florida Constitution makes them totally illegal already.

In fact, the proposed "Limited Casinos" amendment would authorize 47 casinos to be built, in nine specific Florida counties, without local voter authorization.

Citizens who believe the misleading advertising and vote for the "Limited Casinos" amendment, hoping to fight the menace, would be doing exactly the opposite, and opening the door to allow them in.

Casinos are already illegal in Florida. Let's keep it that way. Here are some reasons we should keep all casinos out of Florida:

FACT: Tourism is booming in Florida. More than 41 million tourists came to Florida in 1993, the most ever in a single year. We are a favorite for family vacations. Forty-seven casinos would change our family image to one like Las Vegas. We don't need, or want, that. (Source: Florida State records)

FACT: Forty percent of all white collar crime is linked to "problem gambling." (Source: American Insurance Institute)

FACT: Compulsive gambling is the fastest-growing addiction. (Source: Industry Week magazine)

FACT: Land based casinos are like "black holes," absorbing tourist and resident dollars and time, leaving less to be spent in the surrounding community. (Source - 1994 Report by economist Henry Fishkind)

FACT: Two out of three compulsive gamblers will commit illegal activities to pay gambling related debts, and to continue gambling. One out of every five compulsive gamblers have attempted suicide. (Source - Florida Council on Compulsive Gambling)

FACT: There may be as many as 9.3 million adults, and 1.3 million teenagers with some form of problem gambling behavior in the United States (Source - The United States Gambling Study, 1994, by the University of Massachusetts)

FACT: For every dollar taken in by government, through gambling revenues, there is $1.50 in associated costs, from crime to regulations. (Source - Illinois Business Review)

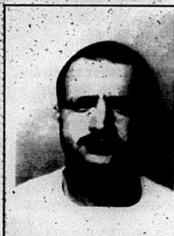

FACT: The relatively low paying jobs that casinos create are at the expense of other businesses. For example, Atlantic City has 40 percent fewer restaurants today than it did before casinos were introduced. (Source - Florida Trend)

I don't believe the citizens of Florida want casinos in their state.

Let's all look beyond the deceptive advertising by the large, out-of-state gambling interests, that want to come into Florida to siphon off money that should stay in our local communities.

Casinos are already illegal here. Let's keep it that way! VOTE "NO" on the "Limited Casinos" Amendment.

What it's like to have Lupus

Dear Editor:

Since this is Lupus Awareness Month, and I am a lupus patient, I would like to share with your readers what it is like to be a lupus patient.

I am always in some degree of pain, but I do not look sick. At times I have very dry cheeks from the lupus. Most people associate dry cheeks with good health, but I am not healthy.

When I have to take steroid drugs to reverse potentially life-threatening symptoms, I gain weight. Most people associate weight gain with feeling good, but I do not feel good.

I almost always have overwhelming fatigue, so I cannot be as active as I would like. Most people associate inactivity with laziness, but I am not lazy.

Lupus attacks many organ systems. Although the symptoms vary from patient to patient, they can include joint pain, muscle aches, skin rash, photosensitivity, hair loss, inflammation of the membranes around the heart or lungs, anemia and other blood abnormalities, kidney involvement, and others. Even physicians tend to associate symptoms in many organ systems with hypochondria, but I am not a hypochondriac.

I am thankful that lupus is not contagious, because the other features of this disease are hard enough to deal with. In lupus the immune system, which is supposed to protect the body against environmental and infectious agents, turns against itself and attacks and destroys healthy tissue. Without treatment even a mild case of lupus may become life-threatening.

Although some of your readers may not have heard of lupus, it is a very common disease. It is more prevalent than muscular dystrophy, cerebral palsy, multiple sclerosis, leukemia, or cystic fibrosis. It is more widespread among black women than sickle cell anemia. Lupus affects all races, age groups, socioeconomic groups, and both sexes. However, 90 percent of lupus patients are women, with the usual age of onset being between 16 and 36.

In 1984 I founded a non-profit organization called the L.E. Support Club. We publish a fantastic newsletter with up-to-date, informative articles on subjects that are important to lupus patients. Anyone who would like more information should send a large, self-addressed envelope with two stamps on it to: L.E. Support Club, 8039 Nova Court, North Charleston, S.C. 29420.

Sincerely,
Harriet B. Mesic,

Gator Tales

Glades Day's campus is taking on the look of a combat zone this week as the Gators celebrate homecoming week with a "Gators at War" theme in preparation for the varsity football game against American Heritage.

Masquerade Day kicked off the Spirit Days as faculty and students dressed in their favorite costume. Gators donned coveralls and jeans for Hillbilly Day on Tuesday, and Wednesday found a lot of look alikes as they dressed for Twins Day. The remaining Spirit Days are Thursday's War/Peace Day and Friday's Green/Gold/White Day.

After last year's rain out, the Student Council is once again sponsoring the Gator Growl Thursday evening, Nov. 4.

The nighttime pep rally will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the Dora B. McWhorter Hall.

The homecoming parade will begin at 1 p.m. Friday with clags floats, decorated cars, trucks and the Gator Band marching down Main Street.

The week's highlight will be the crowning of the 1994 queen during halftime ceremonies of the varsity football game.

The Gator Band is sponsoring a roast beef dinner with all the trimmings from 4:30-7 p.m. in the new cafeteria. Tickets are $6 each.

will still be homecoming!

Drama Department is at work

Glades Central's Drama Department is hard at work with the play "Drive-In". This play will be presented at District X one-act play competition. Before they go to the competition though, Glades Central students will be able to see the play Nov. 29. Get ready for this hilarious comedy of loves lost and won. Come out and support the GC Thespians and Drama Club members in this event.

Clubs, clubs and more clubs

In school Club Day was held last week. All students had the opportunity to sign up for special interest clubs. There are the familiar FFA, FFA, FBLA, SADD and the innovative Comic Book Club, Chess, Uno, Modeling, Hoops.

Some clubs are there to help the students directly with their academic life, such as, the College Prep Club and the Scholarship Club, but, whatever your interest, there is a club for you! If you do not attend a club but want to the holding room, get real! Going to a club is a lot more fun!! See Mrs. Lewis and sign up for a club today. Meetings will be held again next week so don't delay.

and are available from all band members or the high school office.

Congratulations to sixth grade teacher Jan Bottoms, the west campus' "Teacher of the Month" for November. An excellent teacher and friend, Ms. Bottoms has been instructing students for 33 years.

She enjoys reading, traveling and writing for children, and hopes to one day publish some of her writings.

Fifth grade teacher Joyce Chamblee reports this week's "Barnabas" award goes to Christin Hartzog. Keep up the good work, Christin!

Congratulations are in order for the varsity volleyball team who made it to the finals of the district tournament before losing to defending state champion King's Academy. Great season, girls!

In accordance with Fire Prevention Month, the Pahokee Post Office held its annual fire drill on Oct. 13. Letter Carrier Hal Meeks (upper right) who is also president of the Belle Glade Volunteer Fire Department, conducted the fire drill and it was monitored by the Pahokee Fire Department. The drill was a success since the building was evacuated, secured and all personnel accounted for in 33 seconds.

Organization demands better postal service think the way to prepare for the Christmas mail rush is to go rope climbing in Florida."

The retreat to the Grenelefe Golf and Tennis Resort south the Orlando was criticized by the chairman of the House of the Post Office and Civil Service Committee Rep. William L. "Bill" Clay (D-Mo.).

"They should have gone to Santa's Workshop at the North Pole instead of sunny Florida because Santa knows how to deliver," quipped Rep. Clay.

On-time delivery continues to be a problem for the Postal Service according to the audit conducted by Price Waterhouse from May 28-Sept. 16.

The report found almost one in five letters does not make its destination on-time according to Postal Service standards. Baltimore, Md. scored the lowest with an on-time record of only 66 percent.

The First Class Mail Coalition is demanding that the Postal Service make first class mail its number one priority, rather than spending money on executive junkets or new logos.

The coalition also wants to see more accountability on the part of the Postal Service which is the only monopoly in the country with the power to raise its own rates.

More than 140 diverse organizations are members in the Coalition to Make Our First Class Mail FIRST CLASS. It includes the American Small Business Association, National Council of Senior Citizens, American Farm Bureau Federation, National Minority Business Council, National Association of Realtors, National Federation of the Blind and the National Alliance of Business.

Teachers and Seniors end in a tie!

Thursday night there was a Powder Puff game on Memorial Field. A team of Glades Central's female staff members went head-to-head against a team of senior girls while a few of the brave senior guys got together in cheerleader skirts and tied-up shirts to strut their stuff in support of the girls.

"Neon" Dionne Burgess and Terru Osborne scored touchdowns for the teachers and Lucretia Faulk and Tekelia Padgett scored for the seniors. The final score was 16-16. The Powder Puff game was sponsored by the senior class, an event that was reinstituted in homecoming activities by sponsor, Betty Morris.

Homecoming Parade was a hit

On Friday afternoon at 3 p.m., the annual homecoming parade was held. There were entries from Glades Central, CHOICE, Rosenswald Elem., Gladeview Elem., and Lake Shore and many community groups. The parade was the preliminary event for the homecoming game. Beautiful queens adorned floats and cars while they waved to the crowds throughout the town.

"One Last Time" the parade took the familiar route from Canal Street to Main Street, then down Martin Luther King and up Fifth St. and back to the school. Next year we will be in a new school with a new path for the parade, but it

Tuesday, Nov. 15, has been declared National Community Education Day as part of American Education Week. This year's theme, "Together: Communities Creating a Sustainable Future", emphasizes environmental issues.

Students at Gladeview Elem. enjoyed a day of games, face painting, chicken wings, cotton candy, fishing, dancing, and fun at the Halloween carnival held at the school Monday. The carnival was hosted by the PTO and funds will benefit an end-of-the-year trip planned for the children. The carnival was under the direction of Edna Stephens, parent advisor.

Health department offering influenza vaccine

The 1994-95 influenza season is around the corner in South Florida. Influenza can be a very serious infection for those at high risk of complications. In fact, over 3,000 Floridians died from influenza and pneumonia in 1993. Annual vaccination is necessary because of the changing nature of the influenza viruses.

The Palm Beach County Public Health Unit recommends that all of those at risk receive the influenza vaccine, preferably in October or November of this year, although it may be administered as late as January 1995. Vaccination is recommended for the following groups:

all persons over the age of 65; all residents of nursing homes and other long-term care facilities; children and adults with asthma, chronic respiratory and chronic cardiovascular diseases; children and adults with diabetes; children on long-term aspirin therapy, persons with HIV infection and AIDS, health care workers and their families, and persons planning foreign travel.

Obituary

Walker

Emit O'Neal Walker died Oct. 28, 1994. Born Feb. 22, 1922, in Panama City, moved to South Bay in 1926 after the death of his parents. During the 1928 hurricane in which over 2,000 people perished in the shores of Lake Okechobee, Mr. Walker and his brother's family with over 100 people were saved on a house boat anchored in the North New River Canal in South Bay.

Mr. Walker served with the 610 Engineers and 122th engineers during World War II and was involved in the invasion at Omaha Beach in Normandy on D Day.

Following the war, he returned to South Bay and became an entrepreneur and a leader of the community. He was active in city government extending over four decades including the 1940s, 50s, 60s and 70s. He became the city's mayor in October 1950 with the highest vote count at the age of 26.

He is an Elder of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints (Mormon) and served in leadership positions in the Belle Glade Branch over 35 years.

After Mr. Walker retired from business, he was employed by South Bay Growers until 1992.

He is survived by his wife, Esther Haven Walker; sons: Gary O'Neal Walker of Atlanta, Ga.; and, Harry O'Neal Walker of Crestview; grandsons: Brett O'Neal Walker, Adam O'Neal Walker, Benjamin O'Neal Walker and Harrison O'Neal Walker; granddaughter, Jennifer Webb Walker; and, many nieces and nephews.

Services were held Monday, Oct. 31, 1994, at Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, Elder Donald Carson officiated. He was assisted by Bishop Ronald Green. Interment was held at Woodlawn Cemetery, Clewiston.

Arrangements were under the direction of Mixson Funeral Home.

On Thursday, Oct. 21, Captain Michael Mills, substation commander of the Belle Glade Substation, presented Certificates of Appreciation to Homer Hand and Cornelius Foster. The gift's official food baskets for Families Project. Last Thanksgiving, over 160 needy families received turkeys and/or food baskets that were given out by the Belle Glade Substation.

The sheriff's department said they appreciate all of the generous donors and those persons who helped make the project possible. The sheriff's department said they are anticipating doing the project again this year.

According to the sheriff's department, special thanks goes to Deputy Sheriff Michael Fincannon and Jeannette Dexter who were instrumental in the success of the project.

BGE students learn dangers of drug use

"We want the children to know they can't cure drug usage, but they can learn to cope with it," said Gail Harper, Belle Glade Elementary School "Just Say No" coordinator.

Students at BGE had the opportunity to join the Just Say No Club and those that did had the opportunity to demonstrate what membership with the club has meant to them. Those club members who had shown an interest in the club presented a skit the school during Red Ribbon Week.

The entire week of Oct. 24-30 focused on different events and categories that students could participate in. The week began with a kick-off breakfast for the teachers. The breakfast conversation gave an outline of the week's events. Classes and individuals were invited to participate in different events that were planned for the week.

The final day saw a skit that was presented by children ranging from grades kindergarten through fifth. According to Ms. Harper, there are 55-60 students in the Just Say No Club and 15 of them participated in the skit. She said they began practice for the presentation a week in advance.

BGE Principal Glenda Garrett said, "The children showed a real interest in the activity. I am really proud of them and the skit was great."

Lending assistance to the Just Say No Club was Rose Minor, BGE aide, and Juanita Malone, BGE assistant principal, along with Mrs. Garrett.

The winners for the different categories were:

BEWARE OF MISLEADING ADVERTISING ON "LIMITED CASINOS" ISSUE

Casino gambling is currently illegal in Florida, and will remain so unless the state constitution is changed by the voters. "Limited Casinos" is a proposal to do just that. It is promoted by very misleading advertising that suggests that "the best way to control casinos in Florida is to limit their number." The "Limited Casinos" proposal would change the constitution to "limit" their number. Since casinos are presently illegal in Florida, the effect of such a proposal would be to open the door to bring in a "limited" number of casinos. In fact, it would authorize the establishment of forty-seven (47) casinos in nine different counties, without local voter authorization. The "limited casinos" proposal is heavily supported by big gambling interests, including many from out of state, who could not care less for the impact on our state. Don't be misled by their advertising.

THE BEST WAY TO KEEP CASINOS OUT OF FLORIDA IS TO VOTE "NO" TO THE "LIMITED CASINO" PROPOSAL.

Sponsored by the Belle Glade Ministerial Association 996-5568

South Bay Commissioner Michael Jackson was recently chosen to serve on the District IX Juvenile Justice Council.

The Juvenile Justice Council is a county-wide organization that relates to concerns dealing with juvenile justice within the county. The council has input on program decisions and projects.

LaBelle stops Glades Day's winning streak; homecoming game this Friday

The Glades Day School Gators lost to their first game of the season to LaBelle last Friday night by a score of 29-8. The game was not a district game so the Gators are still ranked Number 1 in their district.

This Friday night the Gators will host former Gator Coach, Byron Walker's team, American Heritage.

It is Homecoming Week for the Gators and will be a homecoming for Coach Walker as well.

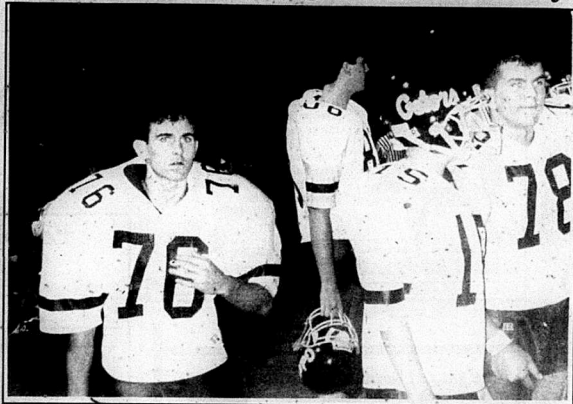

American Heritage is ranked No. 5 in the District 7 2A, with 1-2 in district action and a 4-3 overall record.

Following the homecoming game, the Gators will then end their regular season against Hollywood Christian on Nov. 12.

The playoffs will begin after the Nov. 12 game and, with Glades Day already named a sure in the playoffs, they will have home field advantage.

Kick-off for Friday night's game is 7:30 p.m., with the crowning of the 1994 Homecoming Queen at half-time.

Glades Day Head Coach has only one rule

Tammy Jackson
Staff Reporter

The job of being a head football coach of any school is a tough job but according to Glades Day School Head Coach Mandy Perez, the job is lot less strenuous when you have a coaching staff that believes in doing what can be done for the children.

A 1969 graduate of Pahokee High School, Coach Perez, 42, joined Glades Day School in 1975. The school's junior varsity program started in 1977 and he served as the head coach from 1977-79. Coach Perez said the first season's record was 2-4 because "we were a new program and our boys were new to the program."

Coach Perez became a member of the varsity family in 1980 where he served as assistant coach and defensive coordinator. He remained in the position from 1980-91. He has held the job as leader of the GDS Varsity Football Team for three years and the coach said he is extremely proud of the team's accomplishments.

The varsity team is ranked 7-1 this year and with the junior varsity season already completed, the coach said his staff will be bringing up 10th graders who played on the J.V. team. The coach said he anticipates to have a roster consisting of 35 players by the end of the week.

Having won all of their district games already, the coach said "It's real nice to clinch the title early. We can now fine tune our team."

Last year the varsity team was 11-3 and went to the state championship. Unable to bring the title back to Belle Glade, Coach Perez said he anticipates the team making it that far again. This time, the coach said he wants to bring the title back.

The coach attributes the teams success to the team's defensive coordinator, Pete Walker, and the offensive coordinator, Craig Dobson.

Coach Walker "handles the show defensively". Coach Perez said he is in charge of weight training, and he is a "good day-to-day motivator."

Coach Dobson is an "X's and O's type of guy". Coach Perez said he uses a lot of diagrams to demonstrate what a particular play should look like.

Coach Perez also said Mike Underwood brings a wealth of knowledge to the team. Coach Underwood is the special teams coach.

The Gators clinched the district title when they traveled to Moore Haven and came back home victorious. Those who traveled along with the Gators saw a close-fought game, and a game at which the Gators had to work for a victory. At half-time, the Gators were down 15-8. Coach Perez said, "they (Moore Haven) were a much more physical team than what we had expected. It was a great feeling when Patrick Whitehead kicked the field goal which eventually led to our win."

Coach Perez said he is sure one reason why the school experiences the amount of success that they do is because of the school spirit. The school is decorated in Gator spirit and the community adds the green and gold spirit throughout the town.

Coach Perez and his wife, Flora, have two daughters: Adriana, 16, and, Kristy, 14. Both of the girls attend GDS and Adriana is a varsity cheerleader. Kristy plans to try out for softball and basketball.

The coach is a 1975 graduate of the University of Florida with a MAT degree in teaching. He teaches advanced mathematics, trigonometry, algebra II, and calculus.

The coach said since he was in high school he has always wanted to be a football coach. He said he was seen quite often "hanging with the coaches in school" in a way to learn the profession.

Passing game for Raiders earns them a win against Olympic Heights

Alexa Lutz

With a sweeping win over Olympic Heights, the Raiders are on the road again in next week's game against Fort Pierce Central Cobras.

The Cobras will be looking for another win after having defeated South Fork last week, 46-12.

Although the game is not a district game for the Raiders, they will be up for a win to show they are truly on the winning track.

FP Central is ranked No. 2 in District 9 6-A competition. Glades Central is ranked No. 1 in District 12-4A competition and will gear up for their own game while also watching other games with intense interest.

The Clewiston Tigers will play South Fork. Suncoast is matched against Okeechobee. The district scenario depends on the outcome of these games. If either Clewiston or Suncoast loses, Glades Central will automatically become the District 14-4A District Champions.

If both Clewiston and Suncoast win, there will be a three-way tie which will result in a Kansas tie-breaker.

In the long run, Glades Central has to put all these considerations aside and take on the Cobras with a lot of intensity.

"They are a fine ball club. They are fundamentally sound and this has traditionally been a heated rivalry," said Glades Central Head Coach Milton Watson. "You are talking about the two Central teams (Fort Pierce and Glades Central). There are usually great athletes on both teams. We have to remember they will be tough on their own field."

Quickly behind 7-0 at the beginning of the first quarter, the Raiders rallied to come out a touchdown ahead by the end of the period. Senior running back James Jackson ran 61 yards for a touchdown which was soon followed by a 54-yard touchdown pass by quarterback JaJuan Seider.

By halftime, the Lions had scored again on a 4-yard touchdown run but they missed the extra point. The Raiders quickly rallied with a Seider touchdown to wide receiver Reginald Moor. The Lions then took possession of the ball, but not for long. A blocked punt recovery by Johnny Rutledge left the Raiders at Olympic Heights' 6-yard line. A Seider touchdown pass to wide receiver Demale Stanley left the Raiders ahead 28-13 at half-time.

In the third quarter, the Lions were on the road again with a touchdown and a two-point conversion. This left the score at 28-21.

But the Raiders rose to the occasion when Seider threw his fourth touchdown pass for the evening to Stanley. The touchdown put the score at 35-21 at the Raiders received their seventh win of the season.

According to Raider Quarterback Seider, "The offensive line was strong. The game gave me more time to look over the field and to throw the ball." He said, "Michael Bryant was a big help too, making some key first downs. It was a great team effort," he continued.

The Raiders' defense will be on guard against Fort Pierce's ground game. Fort Pierce rushed for 358 yards against South Fork last week.

The Raiders have to stop the Cobras' option. Senior Robert Newkirk said, "We will have to be a swarming defense."

Pahokee anticipating winning Muck Bowl trophy

Robbie Everett

Pahokee Blue Devil gridders are expecting their two toughest opponents these last two games. They will travel to Boca Raton Friday night to face Olympic Heights in a non-district game. The Muck Bowl follows at home on Veteran's Day. The athletic department is hoping to have a special Fun Day being that there is no school on that day. During the week, a number of activities will take place, including a Parent vs. Staff volleyball game.

Last week, the Blue Devils lost to Pope John Paul. A blocked kick was recovered in the end zone by PJP which eventually led to a Blue Devil loss.

Top performers for Friday's game were Lafann Williams, 23 rushes, 143 yards, and one touchdown; Linwood Johnson, six rushes for seven yards; George Ruggles, six catches for 90 yards and one touchdown; James Burroughs, one 36-yard reception; Anilus Wells, 2 receptions for 24 yards; and, Jabares Everett, 12 for 21 passes, 158 yards and one touchdown.

At halftime, hometown hero Andre Taylor was presented a plaque for outstanding performance in the Bishop Verot game. He was joined at center-field by his mother and principal Eugenia Jones.

Although the team will meet their two toughest opponents the next two weeks "they have not given up," says Coach Kaczonowicz.

They have lost four games this season by a total of seven points.

The Muck Bowl is a game that is anticipated by both fans of the Blue Devils and fans of the Raiders. The Blue Devils are hoping to end the season on a positive note: Bringing home the Muck Bowl trophy.

It is Homecoming Week for the Gators and will be a homecoming for Coach Walker as well.

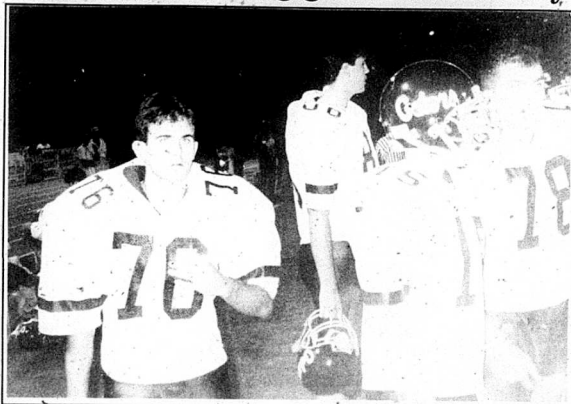

American Heritage is ranked No. 5 in the District 7 2A, with 1-2 in district action and a 4-3 overall record.

Following the homecoming game, the Gators will

The playoffs will begin after the Nov. 12 game and with Glades Day already named a sure in the playoffs, they will have home field advantage.

Coach Perez and his wife, Flora, have two daughters: Adriana, 16, and Kristy, 14. Both of the girls attend GDS and Adriana is a varsity cheerleader. Kristy plans to try out for softball and basketball.

The coach is a 1975 graduate of the University of Florida with a MAT degree in teaching. He teaches advanced mathematics, trigonometry, algebra II, and calculus.

The coach said since he was in high school he has always wanted to be a football coach. He said he was seen quite often "hanging with the coaches in school" in a way to learn the profession.

Passing game for Raiders earns them a win against Olympic Heights

Alexa Lutz

With a sweeping win over Olympic Heights, the Raiders are on the road again in next week's game against Fort Pierce Central Cobras.

The Cobras will be looking for another win after having defeated South Fork last week, 46-12.

Although the game is not a district game for the Raiders, they will be up for a win to show they are truly on the winning track.

FP Central is ranked No. 2 in District 9 6-A competition. Glades Central is ranked No. 1 District 12-4A competition and will gear up for their own game while also watching other games with intense interest.

The Clewiston Tigers will play South Fork. Suncoast is matched against Okeechobee. The district scenario depends on the outcome of these games. If either Clewiston or Suncoast loses, Glades Central will automatically become the District 14-4A District Champions.

If both Clewiston and Suncoast win, there will be a three-way tie which will result in a Kansas tie-breaker.

In the long run, Glades Central has to put all these considerations aside and take on the Cobras with a lot of intensity.

"They are a fine ball club. They are fundamentally sound and this has traditionally been a heated rivalry," said Glades Central Head Coach Milton Watson. "You are talking about the two Central teams (Fort Pierce and Glades Central). There are usually great athletes on both teams. We have to remember they will be tough on their own field."

Quickly behind 7-0 at the beginning of the first quarter, the Raiders rallied to come out a touchdown ahead by the end of the period. Senior running-back James Jackson ran 61 yards for a touchdown which was soon followed by a 54-yard touchdown pass by quarterback JaJuan Seider.

By half-time, the Lions had scored again on a 4-yard touchdown run but they missed the extra point. The Raiders quickly rallied to a Seider touchdown to wide receiver Reginald Moore. The Lions then took possession of the ball, but not for long. A blocked punt recovery by Johnny Rutledge left the Raiders at Olympic Heights' 6-yard line. A Seider touchdown pass to wide receiver Demale Stanley left the Raiders ahead 28-13 at half-time.

In the third quarter, the Lions were on the road again with a touchdown and a two-point conversion. This left the score at 28-21.

But the Raiders rose to the occasion when Seider threw his fourth touchdown pass for the evening to Stanley. The touchdown put the score at 35-21 at the Raiders received their seventh win of the season.

According to Raider Quarterback Seider, "The offensive line was strong. The gave me more time to look over the field and to throw the ball." He said, "Michael Bryant was a big help too, making some key first downs. It was a great team effort," he continued.

The Raiders' defense will be on guard against Fort Pierce's ground game. Fort Pierce rushed for 358 yards against South Fork last week.

The Raiders have to stop the Cobras' option. Senior Robert Newkirk said, "We will have to be a swarming defense."

Pahokee anticipating winning Muck Bowl trophy

Robbie Everett

Pahokee Blue Devil gridders are expecting their two toughest opponents these last two games. They will travel to Boca Raton Friday night to face Olympic Heights in a non-district game. The Muck Bowl follows at home on Veteran's Day. The athletic department is hoping to have a special Fun Day being that there is no school on that day. During the week, a number of activities will take place, including a Parent vs. Staff volleyball game.

Last week, the Blue Devils lost to Pope John Paul. A blocked kick was recovered in the end zone by PJP which eventually led to a Blue Devil loss.

Top performers for Friday's game were Lafann Williams, 23 rushes, 143 yards, and one touchdown; Linwood Johnson, six rushes for seven yards; George Rudgels, six catches for 90 yards and one touchdown; James Burroughs, one 36-yard reception; Anilus Wells, 2 receptions for 24 yards; and, Jabares Everett, 12 for 21 passes, 158 yards and one touchdown.

At half-time, hometown hero Andre Taylor was presented a plaque for outstanding performance in the Bishop Verot game. He was joined at center-field by his mother and principal Eugenia Jones.

Although the team will meet their two toughest opponents the next two weeks "they have not given up," says Coach Kaczoniz.

They have lost four games this season by a total of seven points.

The Muck Bowl is a game that is anticipated by both fans of the Blue Devils and fans of the Raiders. The Blue Devils are hoping to end the season on a positive note: Bringing home the Muck Bowl trophy.
